re: my Petition to Revive my Utility Patent Application, Number 09/849,582
Sole Inventor/Sole Applicant/Sole Owner: myself, David Andrew D'Zmura
my Entity Filing Status: Small Entity, being a pro se independent inventor Agent/Attorney/Third Party Designee: None

in Reply to your Office's Decision on my Petition, bearing mailing date of September 22, 2003 said Decision identified as Paper No. 24, Attorney Paul Shanowski, Office of Petitions

Dear Madam or Sir:

Please enter this reply to your Office of Petitions' decision on my petition to revive my application #09/849,582, filing date of May 5, 2001, and please reconsider your Decision bearing on my petition, dated September 8, 2003, comprising a petition to revive under unavoidable delay to provide the issuance fee, SB61, due to financial difficulties throughout the applicable period.

I appreciated speaking with your Office's representatives by phone, including Attorneys of the USPTO Office of Petitions: Mr. Shanowski, Ms. Grant (9/29/03) and Mr. John Gillon (10/1/03), who were helpful in addressing the nature and content of material required in my reply this date. Should this particular reply not be sufficient in scope or detail, please allow me one further reply.

Following on my phone conversations with your Office, I am providing you the following:

- 1) copy of my bank statements for the period of the PTOL-85, mailed on June 2, 2003, - I did not find it in my P. O. Box 2541 until two weeks later, I was not aware of its mailing, nor pre-advised of its allowance - I have concealed account numbers and have added hand notations;
- 2) copy of my documents relating to my sale of my car, on Sept. 4, 2003, with the full name and address of the party to whom I sold my vehicle shielded to protect that party's privacy;
- 3) copy of my NOL Schedule B, computation of carry-back and carry-over to my 1997 through 2001 1040 personal income tax returns, which I provided to the IRS in my 1040X's for those years, necessitated by my 2002 1040 Net Operating Loss, NOL Schedule A, said Schedule B shows my modified income for the last number of years, wherein, I have concealed the amount of my 2002 NOL. My 2002 1040 return, 4/15/03, was entered by the IRS; my 1040X filings were made at advisement from the IRS. I filed my 1040X's, 9/25/03, by mail with certificate of mailing;
- 4) copy of my recent, July 2003, notice to pay service fee on my individual P.O. Box 2541, Palm Desert, CA 92261, identifying myself as box-holder, which I paid in cash on 7/18/03.

Regarding my long-standing personal tax status: I am single, without dependents, I have no spouse or children; I file my taxes every year with the IRS, and prepare my tax returns myself.

I live in Riverside County, CA, since the Summer of 2002. I have no residence other than my apartment; I rent under lease. I do not have shop, store, office, nor do I deduct a "home office".

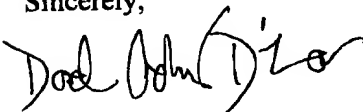

I have not been outside of Southern California, since I arrived here over a year ago. I have not been outside of the U.S. for over twelve years. I am a natural U.S. citizen, my sole citizenship.

I opened my mailing address, P.O. Box 2541, Palm Desert, CA 92261, new service, for my individual use only, on August 7, 2002, and have paid applicable fees for keys and renewal myself.

Outside of my car, I had no readily salable tangible asset with a clearly realizable value that would enable me to pay my application's issuance fee, let alone any other backlogged obligations.

I hope that your Office can grant my Petition to Revive my Application #09/849,582 on the grounds of unavoidable delay, due to financial difficulty. Thank you for your review of my Reply.

Sincerely,

David Andrew D'Zmura
pro se independent inventor

enc. documents of my financial condition, 6/03 to 9/03, via my bank account statements

In September we will make changes to the information describing automated clearing house transactions posting to your account. These technical changes provide you with more reference information in an easy-to-read format.
